SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST

Rufus B. McDaniel , Pastor
Sabbath School Lesson for February 19th to 19th 1972
Subject: Other Aspects of the worship service. Memory Verse "So they read in the book in the law of God distinctly and gave the sense and caused them to understand the reading" Neh. 8:8.

Sunday, February 13 How did the Nazareth congregation react to Jesus' readings? Luke 4:20 and he closed the book and gave it again to the minister and sat down and the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened upon Him. Read Luke 4:16-19 Mon. Feb. 14, "And Jesus sat over against the treasury and beheld how the people cast money into the treasury". It is God who gives us ability to get wealth Dent. 8: 18, Tues., Feb. 15 The bringing of an offering has always formed part of religious devotions, Mal. 3:10,12. Wed., Feb. 16 "I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up and His train filled the temple". "And one cried unto another and said, Holy, holy holy, is the Lord of hosts: the whole earth is full of His glory". The spirit of worship in the heart means that worshipers will be expecting a blessing through the true spirit of worship with suitable music, immerses them in an attitude that uplifts the soul. All should fill God is present. The spirit of Ps. 46:10 should prevade the house of Worship. "Be still and know I am God".

Sherwill 4-H Club's Family Night

An annual event in the Concord area is Sherwill 4-H Club Family Night. It was held Jan. 20 as usual in the Community Center, with exhibits made by members on projects being carried. They showed a wide range of interests. The Danish table was used in the judging and it was a learning process for the members as they assisted with the judging. Exhibits were: 2 Cooking - 2 Blues - 1 Red, White & Blue - Anne Muse Evans; 1 Photography - Blue - Terry Coffey; 1 Home Improvement - Blue Sylvia Carson; 1 Crafts - Blue - Sylvia Carson; Entomology, Photography, Rockets and Small Engines - all Blue - James Hancock, III.

Also, Leslie King, as a guest and a member of a school 4-H Club, made four exhibits in clothing. She got three blues and one red on these garments she made for herself.

Mrs. James Lampman, of Lynchburg and Mr. Carey Carson of Appomattox assisted Mrs. Janet Clement, an extension agent of Campbell County with the judging.

Terry Coffey, the president, presided. Anne Evans gave the devotions. The club members gave brief talks about some phase of their club work now being done.

Two members of this club were state winners to National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago last fall. Jane Garrette, in Home Management, who is now a freshman at V.P.I. could not be present. Terry Coffey showed his color slides taken on the trip and told us about the experiences. He had won his trip in Photography.

The club is to meet with James Hancock III, Feb. 28 - at 7:30 p.m. in his home.

Tax Class Set For Monday

The public is cordially invited to attend the income tax class to be held in the Agricultural Department on Monday evening, Feb. 21 at 7:30 p.m. at the Intermediate School. A period of questions and discussion will be a part of the class. A Mr. Eagle of the state office of the Assembly will be the leader.

A very large crowd attended the regular preaching services at the Mount Shiloh Baptist Church last Sunday morning. The pastor delivered a very helpful sermon. Beautiful music was rendered by the Senior choir. Several homecomers were present.

A very appreciative crowd attended the regular meeting of the Appomattox Assembly at the Intermediate School last Wednesday evening. The Mr. Jerome Jones of Lynchburg, Va. was the guest speaker. He was accompanied by friends from Lynchburg and Roanoke, Va.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Zion Baptist Church in Pamplin met Sunday in the home of Mrs. Lizzie Mack. The business session was very lively and profitable. The group adopted a new constitution which will undoubtedly be an asset to the club for years to come. After the business was completed, Mrs. Mack with the help of her daughters and grandchildren, served a most delicious dinner. The fellowship of the afternoon was quite enjoyable.

Mr. and Mrs. James Radcliffe held a dinner party recently in their new home. Their guests, in whose honor the dinner was served, were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chambers. The dinner was delectable and enjoyed immensely by these good friends.

The regular evening service held at the Promise Land Baptist Church last Sunday evening was enjoyed by all. Several visitors attended the service.

Don't forget the annual Men's Day program sponsored by the Pamplin Community Men's Club on the fourth Sunday evening in this month at 2:30. The Rev. James Frankin, Jr. will serve as master of ceremony. Several musical groups will take a part on the program.

A special program is in the making for the benefit of the Organ Fund of the Galilee Baptist Church.

The Usher Board of the Galilee Baptist Church have announced that the Rev. C. L. Elliott and his Alabama Church Choir will be the guest on the first Sunday in March at 3 p.m. Local Usher Boards are cordially invited to be present.

A reorganizational meeting of the Appomattox county voters league will be held at the local Intermediate School on Monday evening, Feb. 28, at 7:30. Every church community is asked to be represented.

Dr. Gray, chairman of the Appomattox County School Board was the guest speaker at the monthly meeting of the Appomattox branch of the N.A.A.C.P. last Monday evening at the Galilee Baptist Church. His address was helpful and challenging to all who attended. The next monthly meeting will be held with the Promise Land Baptist Church.

ON DEAN'S LIST

Miss Valeria M. Brannon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Brannon of Rt. 1, Appomattox has been named to the first semester Dean's List at Madison College in Harrisonburg, Va. Also on the list, Miss Mary A. Wagoner, daughter of the Rev. F. S. Wagoner, of Richmond and the late Mrs. Wagoner. Mr. Wagoner is a former minister of Memorial United Methodist Church, Appomattox.

To be listed, a student must achieve a 3.5 grade average or better out of a possible 4.0 grade average. A minimum of 14 course hours are also required.

Miss Brannon is now an instructor at Appomattox Intermediate School.

TICKETS ON SALE FOR PLAY

Tickets are now available for the special theater production of "Lion in the Winter", set for Wednesday, March 22 at the Fine Arts Center, Lynchburg.

The Appomattox Woman's Club is inviting members and the public to buy tickets at Fidelity National Bank, Hillcrest Branch, through Mrs. William Chenault. Please make your reservation by Feb. 23.

The production will be a part of the Alice Hoyle District spring meeting. Price of the tickets: $3.50. Performance time: 8:30 p.m.

LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club of ACHS held its second of consecutive meetings of the new year.

David Jones, president of the club, called the meeting to order after which the secretary, Bryan Selz read the minutes. There was no new business brought before the club. The old business discussed included making plans for the upcoming Foreign Language Week. Discussion was also made concerning the Latin Club educational trip which is being planned; also the Handbook and Scrapbook committees were commended for their excellent work.

The program followed which consisted of a Bingo game played between Latin Club students competing among themselves. For example; 1-sedecim, literally means in English, 1 - 16 Winners of the games played are Keith Ferguson, Linda Sullivan, Kathy Mitchell, Debra Jamerson and Mary Ayers. Prizes were awarded.

The meeting was then adjourned.
